Introduction

BimCoin is to champion a massive global wealth transfer therefore becoming a tool for the greatest wealth transfer in the history of mankind.

The four Major purposes of BimCoin Includes:

- 1) Transferring wealth from Fiat (Centralized) to Crypto (Decentralized).
- 2) Transferring wealth from the older generation to the newer generation.
- 3) Transferring wealth from the rich to the poor and vice-versa thereby dissolving wealth inequality in reducing gap between the rich and the poor across.
- 4) Transferring wealth from one place to another at little or no cost.

We are in the early stages of a new global financial epoch. And this transfer of wealth through BimCoin is just beginning and will unfold over multiple decades. This paper introduces a basic theory explaining how and why this wealth transfer is happening.

This simply explains the meteoric rise we would see in the value of BimCoin crypto digital asset. This digital asset is technologically-superior versus the old safe haven assets Gold and USD. USD was previously perceived as the safest asset, as it was backed by the strongest government, and at one point in time the US government even had the bravado to disallow the usage of the prior competing safe haven asset, Gold, as a medium of exchange. But, in the end, the USD is still backed by a government, and, indeed, all governments can fail. With the continuous lifting of the US debt ceiling, the rapid rise of inflation in the US economy over the past three decades, and the irrationality of the US Congress and White House Administration today, the end no longer seems implausible.

Let us give you a quick rundown on our core projects:

Our Project's Name is BIGGEST INTERWEALTH MOVEMENT(BIM) and we have a Non-Government Organization called BIGGEST INTERWEALTH MOVEMENT FOUNDATION which uses the Token called BIMCOIN for all her operation. Ranging from it free distribution TO raising of funds through donations TO given of grants in the funding and raising of Entrepreneurs TO the payment gateway, wallet and card system that will be accessed globally TO the Exchange platform for easy exchange to CryptoCurrencies and fiat currencies TO the Trade Platform for easy trades by traders in trading CryptoCurrencies TO the free DigitalCurrency Trading Training Academy.

All these projects are linked to the BimCoin - which is on bimcoin.cc

We want to really move more wealth into Cryptosystem by making sure people have access to more convenient exchanges and trades platform. We would involve and engage the entire community on our exchange and trade platforms.

All these will help BimCoin to increase and keep increasing in value and more wealth will be moved into the BIM ecosystem, into the hands of younger generation and into the hand of the poor and the rich too.

And of course finally as a reason of all of our various activities the BimCoin token must to keep gaining values... Which in turn gives all participants and members of the BIM community gains on there tokens continually.

Purpose

- 1) Transferring wealth from Fiat (Centralized) to Crypto (Decentralized).
- 2) Transferring wealth from the older generation to the newer generation.
- 3) Transferring wealth from the rich to the poor and vice-versa thereby dissolving wealth inequality in reducing gap between the rich and the poor across.
- 4) Transferring wealth from one place to another at little or no cost.

In contrast, the BimCoin crypto digital asset is supported by armies of decentralized computers across geo-political boundaries, consensus protocols, and strong cryptography, and, this method will now successfully defend more than $500B of the financial value of cryptocurrencies in general. BimCoin crypto asset is not at risk of governmental seizure or inflation, and it could survive even after the combined collapse of all of the political-economies in the West. Even with the entire world in utter chaos or World War III, there would not be any question of the safety and security of these assets.

There will be sheer amount of wealth being generated through the cryptocurrency BimCoin phenomenon. Especially amongst those who got in early and have stayed invested, there are likely to be an entirely new generation of billionaires in the making as this Blockchain technology takes hold in the mainstream, as well as quite plenty multi-millionaires amongst both the “early and late adopters” still getting in now.

This will be tagged “the greatest wealth transfer in the history of mankind.”

When I had this vision, years ago, I didn't really understand how this would go down or see the possibilities for what was even meant by the idea.

Yet, in reflection upon this over and over till now, I have been able to vision out alot of facts as to why this cryptocurrency BimCoin will be such a huge positive disruptive force and what positive implications its accelerating adoption holds, there was this an awakening sense of recognition: that this is the beginning of the massive global wealth transfer.

Vision

This vision assumes you may already have some foundational knowledge about the corrupted nature of the fiat banking system—a topic many in the crypto space are familiar with. So, we aren't going to go far into that aspect of this narrative. Though, it is highly relevant—given BimCoin was fundamentally started as an alternative to the international standard money systems run by crooks, as a means of transforming the global economic system to a decentralized model based on ethics and harmony with natural law, rather than the scarcity-based egoic greed and lust for domination characterizing the old.

You most likely already know the figures... the top 5% hoarding 95% of the wealth, instilling protocols of forced taxation—a.k.a. unconsented theft - and usury schemes to essentially enslave populations in a rat race to pay off a ceaselessly-accumulating public debt, largely exaggerated through trillion-dollar military expenditures to sustain a military-industrial complex making trillionaires of unknown head figures owning the banks at the highest levels.

Yeah—it sounds almost like something out of a movie, or as though I'm going conspiracy nut here. But most of us have been down that rabbit hole and know there is ALOT seriously twisted with our global governance systems. And, many of us have been drawn into this crypto universe with a desire to serve a revolution putting an end to those outdated models that self-perpetuate at great extraneous costs to human life, environmental health, and social & cultural maturation.

Perhaps it wasn't all some huge conspiracy of an interdimensional lizard race seizing control of world leaders to enslave the human race through debt. (Or maybe there was some fragments of truth in some of those extremist views). Perhaps, it was all merely artefacts of an early evolutionary phase in human consciousness development—inevitable growing pains in the larger context of a dualistic reality abundant in dichotomous paradox as society did progress.

Either way, we find ourselves at a rather interesting time on this planet, with a convergence of many fascinating factors. We are at a tipping point as our technological development approaches a “singularity.” A rapid acceleration of consciousness, information accessibility, and technological capability is bringing us to a catalyst.

There has been great inequality in our economic systems, instability in our political systems, weakness in our financial systems, abnormalities in our cultural codings, perversions in our societies, etc, etc.

And—though change is inevitable, as a natural law—all this is about to change...and the BimCoin phenomenal is the change agent.

While there could be volumes written on those distinct arenas—economics, politics, finance, commerce, culture, sociology, etc—these are not segregated. They are all interoperable components in this larger system called humanity and its world. The solutions to mankind's greatest challenges lies in the intersection. Though for now, let's focus back in on the economic aspect of the financial system and the approaching wealth transfer...BimCoin will champion.

For years, fringe-dwellers, revolutionaries, rebels, artists, and underground entrepreneurs have ideologically battled against the injustices of the corrupted global financial-political systems. Yet, cryptocurrency BimCoin & blockchain technology may have been the secret weapon they've been waiting for.

BimCoin, Crypto/blockchain IS the alternative system.

BimCoin is the means by which humanity can now upgrade the infrastructure of its political-economic models such that corruption becomes decreasingly possible.

BimCoin is a Cryptocurrency token and commodity upon which the passionate rebels, revolutionaries, and visionaries of a just, fair, honest society may be able channel their creativity into establishing new means of creating value, collaborating in problem-solving, conducting value exchange, and go about effectively allocating resources to benefit the health of the whole.

Satoshi Nakamoto was far more than just an anonymous computer programmer. Gifting Bitcoin, he laid the seeds for the transformation of our society so as to serve the human race from averting the complete disaster inevitable were we to carry down the path we have been. He gave birth to a movement, and an army of developers desiring to build an alternative to the corrupted fiat banking system nurtured those seeds. The outcome: we are now about witnessing in BimCoin—and as participants in—the complete transformation of society's economic governance systems.

And while this portrayal of the shift may sound dramatic, most may not even be aware it is occurring. For many, it may happen so slowly in the background, and they may not have the interest to learn about what is unfolding that they will go on relatively blind to the transformation, their lives moreless directly unaffected.

However, there does lie tremendous opportunity for those in the trenches of this BimCoin movement, who are becoming familiar with the terrain and fluent in the protocols of the emerging systems of decentralized governance and wealth creation.

This is not the paper to convince you there is going to be huge wealth created through cryptocurrency BimCoin and the tsunami of blockchain technology transforming industries, institutions, governments, and collaborative culture.

If you haven't seen that coming yet, get to work investing in your knowledge and you eventually will.

Predictably, this BimCoin cryptocurrency value will rise. As will unicorns, out of this realm of blockchain innovation.

Many millionaires and billionaires—perhaps even trillionaires—will emerge through BimCoin.

Though—coming back to the concept of “the greatest wealth transfer of all time”—this will not just be a fresh round of executives or elites comparable to the 5% of humanity currently holding the majority of the global wealth. It's a new breed.

This class aren't merely traders addictively getting into crypto for quick pump-and-dump profits—they're a fresh generation of leaders, working with this BimCoin solution to the world's largest challenges. These aren't the ambitiously-driven in the power & paper chase, but a wiser, mature tribe of intelligent creatives seeking to build new societal structures completely unlike the profit-obsessed, destructive, oppressive old.

The wealth transfer shall occur from the aging sociopaths threatening mankind's well-being, to the misfit youth that never fit into “the system” and bought into the corporate B.S., but whom always felt it part of their mission to right the wrongs of the world through a sweeping movement putting the power back into the hands of the people.

And though some might criticize, suggesting the wealth is just going to move from one 5% group to another 5% who happened to be early adopters, that's not quite the case. Yes, there may always be a majority who've created massively more amounts of value in BimCoin than others, thus reaping their proportionate compensation. However, the power and influence of this new class of emerging leaders shall be directed much differently with a contrasting set of values and priorities than the previous...

So yes, the early adopters of BimCoin cryptocurrency and first round of this blockchain pioneers may become the new financial elite, reaping the exponential multiplication of their investments in knowledge, skills, and capital. Though, the majority population at large, too, stand to greatly benefit through a redistribution of wealth—not only financial, but means of access to this tool with which they can participate as value creators and collaborators in an efficient global economy free of centralized interference by corrupted 'powers.'

It's all kind of a big deal.

BimCoin is this tool for the “greatest wealth transfer in history”

It's sink or swim time. The tsunami is approaching.

There might be some chaos that goes down before we get to the idealized utopia of universal basic income and well-functioning governmental systems living in sustainable harmony. Though, it's nothing to fear with the correct preparation.

Yes, there is opportunity to invest financially and profit.

Though, the even greater opportunity may be to invest in knowledge and skills.

Learning how to surf.

There never were any “secrets” to wealth. Only the simple formula of value x leverage.

The technologies within our reach can provide immeasurable leverage. Though really, we have to show up with the value.

The wealthiest to emerge out of this BimCoin wealth transfer may not just be the shareholders, but the stakeholders. Those who have immersed themselves in understanding the technology and its implications, serving the communities advancing its development.

It may still be niche now. But this tech will find its way into near all aspects of our lives, just as computers and the internet have. Those who learn it sooner and navigate how to contribute their skills to leveraging the developments for the better of the whole earn themselves significant advantage in adapting to the steady flow of opportunities for innovation blossoming out of these BimCoin ecosystem.

So choose your outcome.

Sink. Or learn to surf.

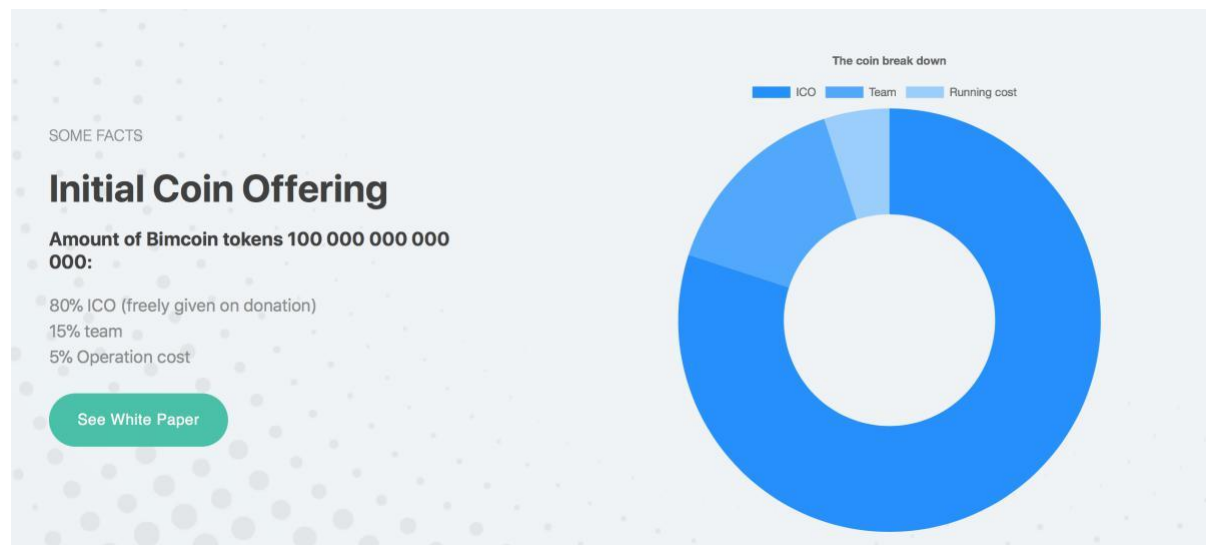

Because BimCoin is turning out to be one dreamy monster of a perfect wave... And I imagined the sheer amount of wealth that will be generated through this BimCoin cryptocurrency phenomenon. Especially amongst those who got in early and have stayed invested, and like I earlier said:

there are likely to be an entirely new generation of billionaires in the making as this Coin takes hold in the mainstream, as well as quite a few multi-millionaires amongst the “early and late adopters” still getting in now.

Also this BimCoin concept will be the tool for —“the greatest wealth transfer in the history of mankind.”
